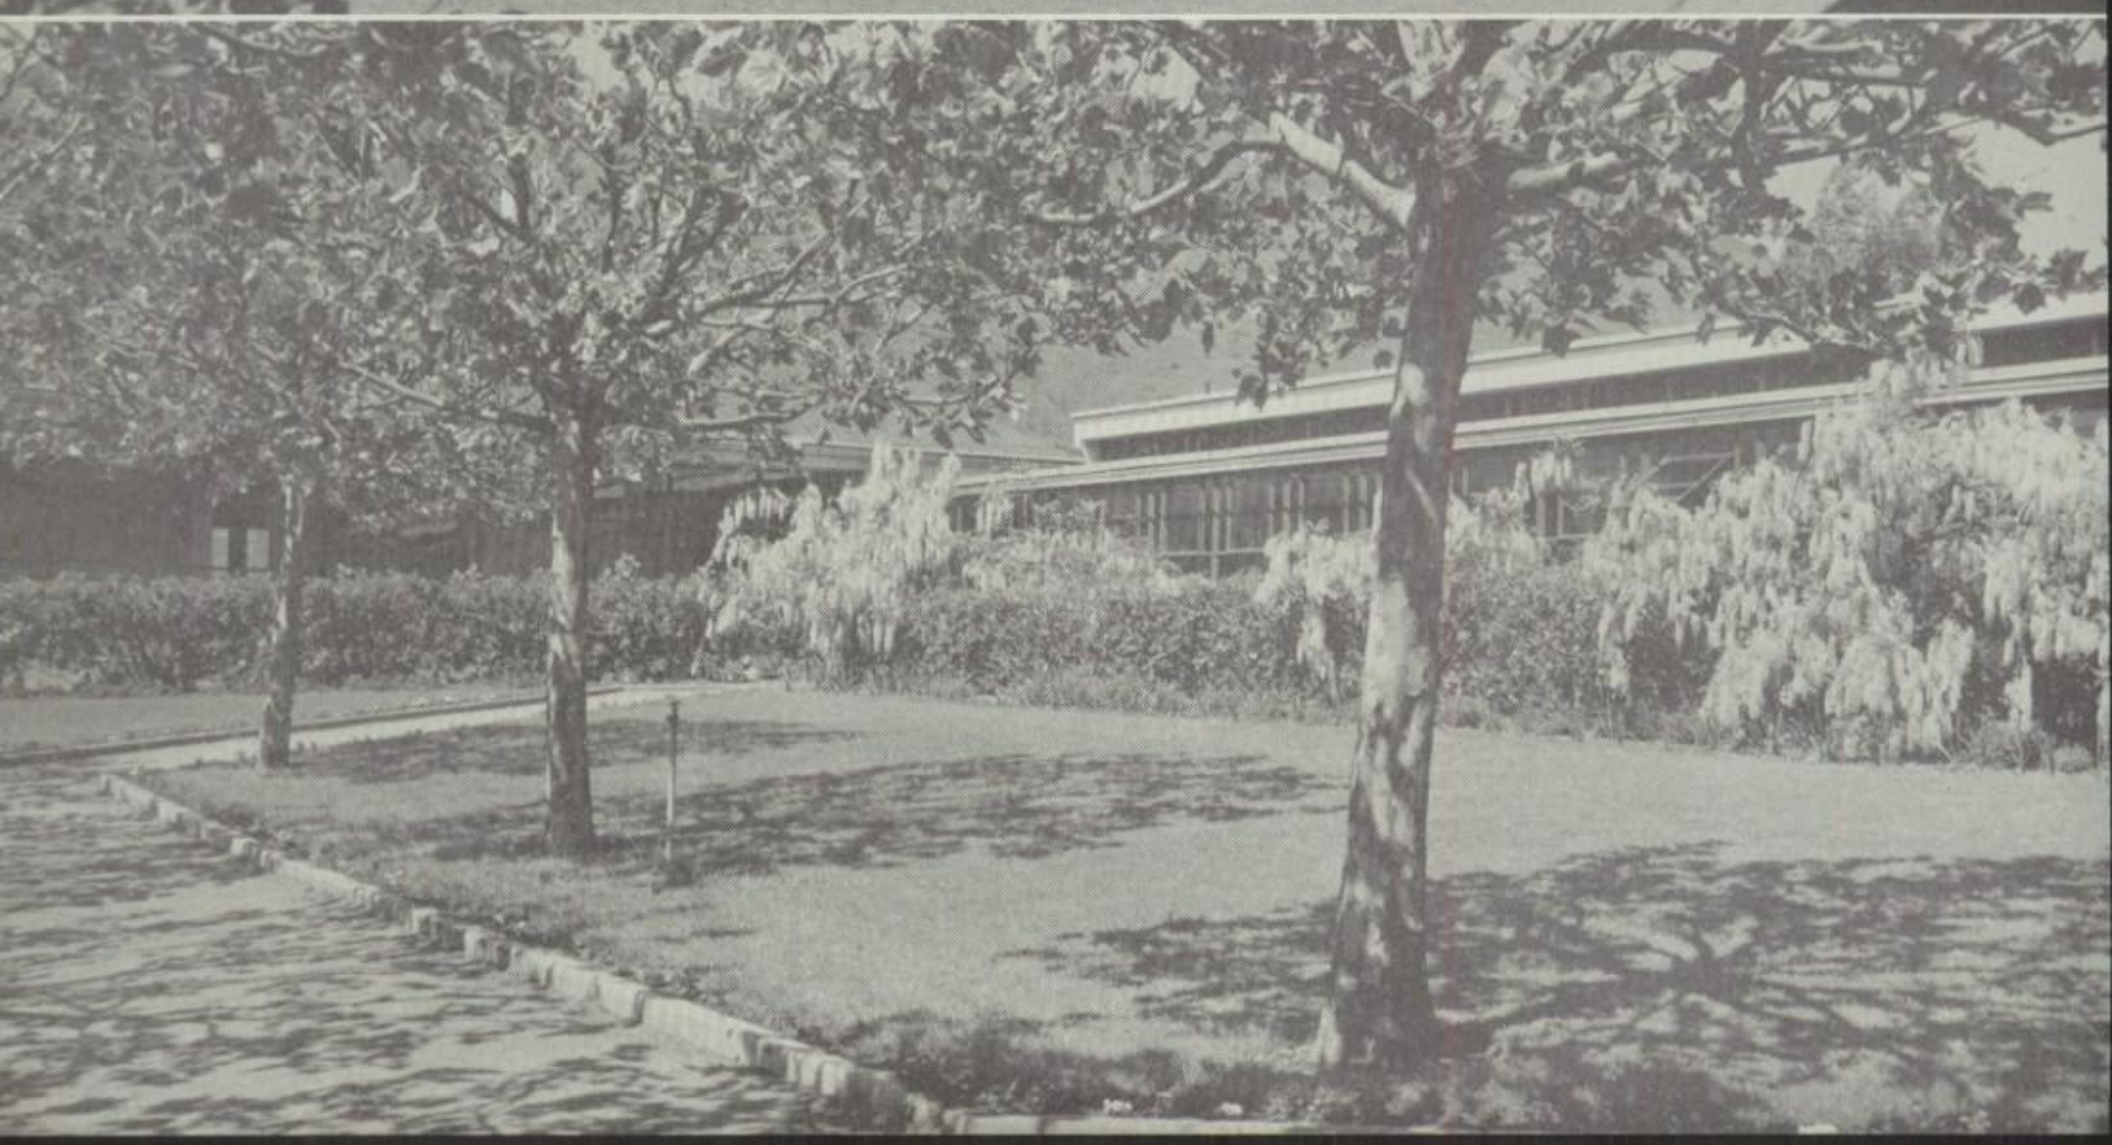
ACALANES · DECADE I

Ten years ago on May 11, 1940 in a fertile tomato patch, the construction of Acalanes was begun. Within three months the desires of a cooperative community and the magic of modern engineering had created a high school, still unfinished as to buildings but completely furnished with eager students and hard-working teachers. Looking back, conditions seem pretty hectic: Public Speaking, English I and Math were being taught in various sections of the gym bleachers; Coach Mattson trotted in from baseball to teach World History; Miss Nicholson would turn off the gas jets in the chem lab, run down to the gym and grab a basketball; French, Spanish and Latin raised international havoc in the same class. Every room and teacher served double and triple purposes.

Each year since that momentous first one has seen new developments at Acalanes. Three times it has been necessary to add new buildings: classrooms, shops, lunchroom and library. The student body has grown from its initial 395 to 950; the faculty from 13 to 47. Happily, this phenomenal growth has served only to intensify Acalanes' traditions of friendliness and outstanding achievements in all fields.

Although a mere ten years young by ordinary reckoning, the Acalanes Don has an honorable history that goes back to the time he sailed into San Francisco and first explored the countryside. Dressed in his brilliant sash and jaunty sombrero cordobés, he rode over the hills of Contra Costa, made friends with the Aklan Indians, and chose a rancho near the center of the present school district.



DEDICATION

In the decade of its existence, Acalanes has undergone rapid development, but this has not been without extensive planning and hard work. This year the 1950 AKLAN is dedicated to one who for ten years has given generously of his time and energy in making this progress possible.

He is a man loved by students and faculty alike for his cheerful smile and charming manner. No Acalanes event, be it banquet, dance, or graduation, is without his assistance. His patience and skill have helped to make Acalanes a picture of beauty with spacious lawns and flowering court gardens; consequently, our school ranks among the most attractive in the nation.

It is in friendship and gratitude that we dedicate the 1950 AKLAN to Manuel Velazquez.

During the past decade Acalanes has made notable progress in the field of counseling. Since the first year of the school, the counseling staff has increased from two members to six. It has also acquired a new and larger office.

With better facilities to carry on this important work, the active and capable staff under the direction of Leland Russell devotes its time to helping and encouraging students both in regard to their high school programs and their future plans. A personal interest is taken in each individual, and aid is given to him in finding and developing his own abilities. For this purpose the staff conducts several different types of aptitude, attitude, and achievement tests. Also this department provides an unlimited amount of information needed by graduating seniors in making their post-graduation plans whether they include working or attending college.

CITIZENSHIP COMMITTEE

Presided over by the Student Body President, the Citizenship Committee is composed of one sophomore, two juniors, and two seniors elected by their respective classes. With the aid of a faculty adviser, this group accepts or rejects all recommendations for citizenship points.

RALLY COMMITTEE

This year marks the second year of existence for the Rally Committee. The committee, composed of ten Seniors and ten Juniors, elected as its officers Richard Breuner, president; Pete Larmer, vice-president; and Shirley Van Cleave, secretary. It is the job of this group to see that the Student Body is "rallied" to support their teams by stimulating and entertaining rallies. At the end of each year, the members choose ten Sophomores to fill the vacancies left by the graduating Seniors.

BOYS' FEDERATION

The Boys' Federation originated in the school's first year with a membership of 195 compared to today's 475. Including all Acalanes boys, this group held as its main event the annual Fathers' and Sons' Banquet. Its other activities included a Faculty vs. Seniors basketball game, a basketball clinic, and a demonstration of police equipment by Deputy Sheriff Norman Wilson.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Composed of all Acalanes girls, the Girls' League successfully carried out several big projects. First among these was a magazine subscription sale which raised money for the organization. Later the Girls' League sponsored the annual March of Dimes campaign at Acalanes. In May the girls held their biggest affair, the Mothers' Tea, "An English Country Fair."

That's all he's worth.

He's all ours.

Have I pleased my master?

They're in for it now.

And a Happy New Year too!

Is that your tux, Clark?

CLASSES

SENIORS

Desiring to make their last year at Acalanes a memorable one, the graduating Seniors presented a series of very entertaining affairs. First of these events was the Senior Assembly, "Hollywood," a sketch about life on a movie set in which a number of Seniors exhibited their previously undiscovered talents. Next, appropriate to the state of the elements in January, the Seniors held the Senior Extra, "Stormy Weather." Then on April 21 they presented their Senior Play, "Mother Is A Freshman." Attended by a large crowd, the play was hailed as a fine production. The Seniors ended the year with a splendid Senior Ball, "Garden Of Memories," which again illustrated the abilities of this group.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class started the year off with a bang when they lowered the drawbridge and threw "A Knight Out." This affair turned out to be one of the most successful Junior Proms on record. Later, during the annual Christmas gift campaign, the Juniors again proved themselves outstanding when eight out of their ten advisories reached the hundred percent mark. On February twenty-first, they further showed their abilities when they held the Junior extra dance, "Down On The Farm."

The Juniors' biggest success of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet, "Deep South." In an atmosphere of Southern hospitality, the Juniors served the Seniors dinner and provided them with excellent entertainment. Later, the same entertainment was given in an assembly for the whole student body and was also taken as an exchange assembly to Alhambra and Mt. Diablo.

With the end of this year the Sophomores can discard the role of underclassmen and assume their positions in the "upper bracket" as Juniors. Since their arrival here as Freshmen, the members of the Sophomore Class have proved themselves very capable in many fields. In activities such as Aklan, Blue Print, Dance, and Music, the Sophomores contributed their valuable talents, and a number of them displayed well developed skills in various athletic events. Furthermore, as a group the Sophomores exhibited their highly cooperative spirit in organizing the annual Sophomore Hop, the theme of which, "Candy Isle," was aptly carried out by colorful decorations of candy canes and gingerbread men.

FRESHMEN

This year the Freshmen invaded Acalanes with the largest class enrollment in the school's history. Despite their enormity they managed to coordinate their efforts in carrying out the different Freshman activities. After converting the gym into a remote section of the "dark continent," the Frosh played host to Dons and Donnas at their annual Freshman Frolic "Africa Screams." As the year further unfolded, Freshmen contributed to other school activities by taking charge of decorations for both the Christmas Performance and the Messiah. In May they climaxed their first year by inaugurating "Frosh Day." The entire campus was given exclusively to the Frosh for picnicking, folk-dancing, swimming, and other sports.

ACTIVITIES

DRAMA

Directed by Mr. Richard Nesbitt, drama productions for this year played a major part in entertainment activities at Acalanes. In the fall, the drama group presented a melodrama, "Curses, the Villain Is Foiled," the cast of which included Beverley Mumford, Marilyn Hansen, Marion Troyer, Tom Hageman, Dave Dehlin, and Criss Fitzpatrick. Later, drama students entertained the Parents' Club with a skit, monologues, and a scene from "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." Those taking part in this performance were Petey Bedard, Sue Tomer, Shirley McAninch, Criss Fitzpatrick, and Sally Finzel.

During the third quarter, all dramatic efforts were coordinated in preparing for the Senior Play, "Mother Is A Freshman." The leading roles were portrayed by Bev du Peé as Mrs. Abigail Abbott and Laura Castelnuovo as Susan. Others in the cast were Joan Niemann, Barbara Sondag, Arlyss McFetridge, LeAnn Court, Joanne Randall, Jackie Swanson, Marcia Eggerts, Bill Hampton, Lee Bates, Bob Sondag, Fred Read, and Larry Feagans.

Near the end of the year, the Drama Guild was established with Anne Hawkesworth as its president. This group worked on three one-act plays which will be presented next year.

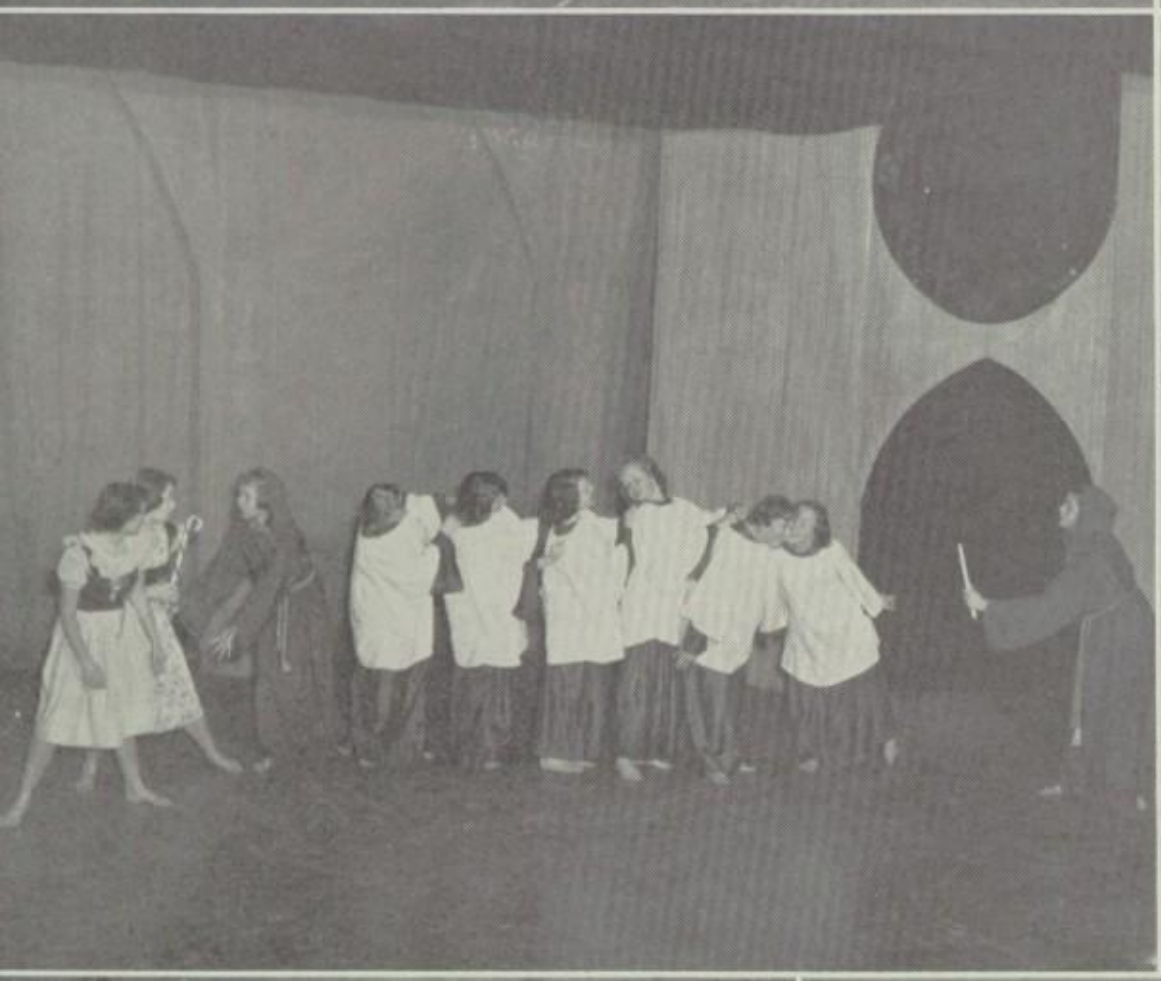
DANCE



As their annual Christmas gift to the community, the Dance Group, under the direction of Millicent Hamburger, gave the old legend of the Juggler of Notre Dame, with Chris Inman-Kane as the Juggler and Sylvia Hawley as the Madonna.

In commemoration of the death of Chopin 100 years ago, a group of preludes and a polonaise were danced by members of the Dance classes as their contribution to the Spring Festival. Along with these, the Dance Group gave a group of Negro Spirituals, and American folk songs. In addition to dancing in the Spring Festival, the Group gave programs for the Jr. Statesman Convention, Open House, and the Mothers' Tea.

C. S. F.

This year the active Acalanes' chapter of the California Scholarship Federation was larger than ever before due to the greatly increased enrollment at Acalanes. For their annual college visiting trip, the group chose the University of California campus where, besides enjoying themselves thoroughly, they learned something of the functions of this big institution.

To earn money for the scholarship awarded each year to one of its graduating members, the C. S. F. gave the dance, "Gypsy Caravan," and sponsored a noon swimming and diving exhibition. In June they climaxed their activities with the big C. S. F. picnic.

The C. S. F. is composed of all students receiving for their semester grade three A's and one B, or better. Miss Vera Richardson acts as the group's adviser.

ACALHONORS

Acalhonors is the second honor society at Acalanes. This group and the Acalanes Chapter of the C. S. F. were formed at the same time, Acalhonors deriving its name from the name of the school. Both honor societies follow a similar pattern in organization. Like C. S. F., Acalhonors is maintained for students who have a superior record scholastically, and therefore there are certain requirements all incoming members must meet. If a student wishes to join this honor organization, he must receive three B's and one A for his semester grades. Membership in this society is also automatically extended to all students belonging to C. S. F. The group's adviser is Miss Vera Richardson.

JUNIOR STATESMEN

The Junior Statesmen's main purpose is to acquaint themselves with the structure and functions of government in relationship to domestic and international problems of a social, economic and political nature. The organization also attempts to stimulate in all students an interest in these affairs through movies, exhibits, speakers, and other projects. Advised by Mr. Bill Ross, the group held a regional convention and sponsored a school-wide "Career Day."

JUNIOR RED CROSS

This year the Acalanes Junior Red Cross Chapter carried out several noteworthy projects. To raise money for the national organization the group held a slave sale and sponsored the annual Red Cross drive at Acalanes; as a local project, they made party favors for the Veterans' Hospital in Martinez. This group is advised by Miss Helen Peterson.

The Don gridders had a highly successful season. This team was perhaps the best in Acalanes' history winding up in second place with six wins, one loss, and a tie.

On September 1st, Coaches Mattson and Stevens greeted over one hundred grid hopefuls. Included were eight first stringers from 1948 and many capable J.V.'s. Several weeks of grueling workouts put the team in mid-season form.

With a backfield that averaged 178 pounds behind an aggressive line that averaged 187 pounds, the T-formation Dons hosted the Albany Cougars in a practice tilt. The result was a decisive 26-0 victory. On September 23rd, the El Cerrito Gauchos crumbled, 13-0, under a fighting Acalanes line and the hard running of Ken Jones. The Tracy Bulldog, the next victim, fell by a 27-0 score in an unexciting game.

The first league clash with the Diablo Devils found the Don eleven fumbling their way to a fortunate 6-6 tie.

The following Friday evening saw the Donsmen pass and run Alhambra High off the field with a 39-6 win.

Seven days later the Blue and White encountered a scrappy club from Antioch. This was the Don's finest performance. In the line, guards BoBo Forni and George Cockerton were outstanding. End Granny Siler snagged passes thrown by Jack King, while Pete Larmer and Ken Jones, aided by the fine blocking of Lawrence Lucas, ran through and around the Panther line. The Dons emerged on top, 26-12.

On the afternoon of October 28th, the John Swett Indian was scalped in the "Sugar City." The reserves gave the regulars a two quarter rest and ended with 38 points to Crockett's 0.

Then came the acid test for the Blue and White machine when they tangled with Pittsburg's Pirates. Before a record crowd the Dons were played off their feet and lost 32-7.

Although Acalanes did not win the league championship, the team's success was undoubtedly aided by the fine line coaching of Mr. Stevens, backfield work of Mr. Mattson, and help of Mr. Hageman.

Three men made the first string all-county team: George Cockerton, Pete Larmer, and Lawrence Lucas; Ken Jones was a second string all-county back. Orland Chiavini, Jay Forni, Dick Laney, Lloyd Torchio, and Jack York received honorable mention.

The hole left by the twenty-eight graduating seniors will be capably filled by members of Mr. Eaton's fine Junior Varsity team which this year won the mythical league championship.

BASKET

This year's cage team was anything but ordinary. Under the direction of its new mentor, Lee Arth, it stole the show from the rest of the county and brought home the county championship, the first since the 47-48 season.

The Dons took it on the chin in their first practice tilt with Fremont, 23-36. The future remained obscure as Alameda and Richmond also sank the Dons. On December 2, the Albany Cougars became Acalanes' first victim. Marsh Freeman, all-county forward last year, led the Dons with 11 markers. In a close contest at El Cerrito, our cagers lost 38-40, but a week later they repayed the Gauchos 26-24.

The Blue and White continued in fine style, nipping Diablo 33-31 and then gliding past Antioch and Berkeley. Then against John Swett our boys seemed unable to hit, and they came out on the short end, 32-38.

After this blow, the Don casaba men got back on their feet and played inspired basketball. Tanking 20 points, Marsh Freeman led the Dons over Pittsburg. After romping over Alhambra, the boys once again met Diablo. Bob Ferro's 12 points helped pull this one out of the fire.

The Donsmen defeated Piedmont and then had a close call with Antioch. Now came two crucial tests, the first with John Swett. The Dons took this one; Marsh making 22 points and Granny Siler connecting for 11. The second with Pittsburg proved nearly fatal. The Blue and White led until a last minute burst by the Pirates, but a set up by Marsh and a free throw by Larry Feagans put the game and the C.C.A.L. Championship on ice. Just as a formality, the Don cagers routed Alhambra's Bulldogs; Marsh hit his all-time high with 24 points.

With the Championship under their belt, the Dons went to San Francisco where they defeated Weed in the Tournament of Champions. But the Salinas club proved too tall for the Dons and eliminated them in the semi-finals.

Forward Marsh Freeman was unanimously chosen all-county. Lloyd Torchio and Bob Ferro landed second team positions.

Coach Jerry Brown's "B" team started this year in a winless way. It was the sixth game when they chalked up their first win. They ended the season with 6 wins in 18 encounters. Art Siler was an all-county selection.

TRACK

The 1950 edition of the Don track team brought unexpected fame to Acalanes. These tracksters started the year with unknown strength and grew vastly stronger as the meets sped by.

In dual competition, the thinclads were unimpressive in their first loss to Fremont. Then the Dons shifted to high gear and routed Pittsburg, Antioch, and Diablo. However, El Cerrito proved to be too powerful for the Dons.

In more rugged engagements, the Donsmen posted many imposing victories. First they won the county throne at Diablo, and then went on to cop top honors in the North Coast Section. The greatest accomplishment, however, was the North Coast Championship in which the Dons garnered 25 points. This win made Acalanes the first Contra Costa County school to win this Spalding North Coast trophy of the C.I.F.

Some of the Don stalwarts were Lawrence Lucas, Orlando Chiavini, Harry Nielson, Jiggers Warren, and Granny Siler.

Coach Lord's "B" squad had a very good season. It won three meets and took third in both the County and North Coast Section.

BASEBALL

The Acalanes diamond men were relatively unsuccessful this spring. This is particularly true in comparing their record with past years. With two games remaining the Dons had a league record of 3 wins and 5 losses. But the league championship was completely out of reach.

Although the team was not the smooth-working unit of past years, there were excellent ball players. Dick Green pitched one perfect no-hit ball game. He was also selected for the All-Star team. Ken Jones and Bob Fox were mainstays of the infield while Forrest Borghesani also worked well on the mound.

The Don J.V. team found it hard to win ball games this year, but the 12 game schedule was invaluable experience to these future varsity players. However, they ended the year with a superb win over Piedmont's varsity.

For the seventh consecutive year, the Don swimmers captured the county crown. This title was due mainly to the efforts of Marsh Freeman, Tom Roemer, Jim Jacobus, and Brooks de Laneux. John Rounds set a new 200 yard free style record. In dual competition, the Blue and Whites won 6 meets and lost 2.

TENNIS

The Acalanes racket men had a 16-1 win loss record. Scott Zumwalt annexed the county singles while Bob Wallis and Roger Dunn took the doubles match. This record speaks clearly for itself, but there were two notable victories. One was over highly touted Piedmont and the other over Napa J.C.

CHIPS

The "Chips" is a name given to the group of letter winners in the "B" or junior varsity classification. This group is relatively new at Acalanes and still inactive. This is J.V. baseball's first year in this group.

BLOCK "A"

This organization is open to all boys earning a varsity block "A." The annual picnic and initiation took place near the end of the school year. The most amazing of its activities was its phenomenal growth. Lawrence Lucas was president this year.

CABINET

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association began the 1949-50 season with the annual volleyball elimination tournament. Although every gym class team participated in the competition, only teams five and six remained for the final championship tilt after the eliminations. Team five won, placing Val de Laneux, Rosemarie Indelicato, Sharon Brown, and Rita French on the All-School Volleyball Team. Others who placed on this honorary team were Dorothy Hanawalt, Ann Seulberger, Judy Woolsey, Ann Bronson, Ann Champlain, and Gail Landsmith.

Following the volleyball tournament came basketball season. In the final contest of the basketball tournament, the tables were turned with period six upsetting the fifth period team. The winning squad placed Dorothy Hanawalt and Judy Woolsey on the All-School Basketball Team, which also included Val de Laneux, Rosemarie Indelicato, Sharon Brown, Mary Zbavitel, Janet Emerson, and Pat Herrick.

AWARDEES

SECOND ROW: J. Miller, D. Piona, D. Hanawalt, G. Landsmith, J. Jansse, J. Amdisen, J. Landes, M. Blankenship, S. Hawley, A. Hawksworth, S. Daniels, J. Chantler, M. West. THIRD ROW: P. Everest, R. Indelicato, A. McAllister, J. Woolsey, A. Hatton, C. Courtright, D. Owen, S. Brown, J. Swanson, C. Inman-Kane, K. Lyser, B. Springston, A. Champlin.

MANAGERS

Later in the year the speedball tournament was held with the combined team of third and fourth periods emerging victorious. Those making the All-School Speedball Team were Sue Barnhart, Sharon Brown, Laura Castelnuovo, Ann Champlain, Barbara Hansen, Rosemarie Indelicato, Adele Mork, Diane Owen, Pat Pfeiffer, and Margie Taylor.

In addition to these activities, the G.A.A. also held badminton and tennis tournaments, a baseball elimination series, and a swimming meet.

The G.A.A. also arranged several non-competitive get-togethers with other schools. The badminton playday, "St. Patrick's Playland," was held in March and included "bird" enthusiasts from six schools. Another playday was held with Diablo girls on the afternoon of the league basketball game between the Dons and the Devils.

The girls who received block "A's" in the middle of the year were Val de Laneux, Barbara Reark, Rita French, Judy Woolsey, Janet Emerson, and Ann Seulberger. To qualify for this award, a girl must have placed on three All-School teams. Participation in two major dance performances is equal to one school team.

For next year, the Girls' Athletic Association plans to draw up a new constitution in order to meet the needs of the ever-increasing size of the school. Also, new activities are being planned in the way of after-school sports.
